This payroll calendar is for Substitute Teachers only.

Please keep this calendar where you can refer back to the check issued (pay) dates. This will let you know if the dates that you worked as a substitute teacher will be on the pay check that you are receiving for the pay period.

If you have dates missing during a pay period you will need to check this sheet for the payroll dates and then please contact the school bookkeeper. The schools are responsible for putting the days you work as a substitute into the system.

All checks including June should be picked up at the school that you have designated for your checks.
